STRIKERS FIGHT WITH DEPUTIES

Four Men Killed in California Hop District.

MILITIA STARTS FOR SCENE

Five Companies of State Troops Leave Sacramento to Restore Order — Workers Demand Higher Wages, Better Sanitary Conditions in Camp and Field and Fresh Water Service Twice Each Day.

Sacramento, Cal., Aug. 4.—A special train carrying five companies of militia has been ordered to leave here for Wheatland, Cal., where four men, including the district attorney of Yuba county, were killed in a revolver battle between 400 striking hop pickers and a sheriff's posse.

The militiamen are equipped with 200 rounds of ammunition to the man and three days' rations.

According to reports reaching here from Wheatland the hop pickers held a meeting and formulated demands for increased wages. All were employees of the Durst ranch, which lies partly within Wheatland township.

Durst and Constable Anderson attended the meeting. When Durst refused their demands the men became abusive. Anderson sought to place the leader under arrest. He was disarmed and beaten but escaped and telephoned Sheriff George H. Voss of Yuba county for help.

Voss gathered a posse and hastened to Wheatland by automobile from Mayville, the county seat. Maxwell accompanied him. When the machine reached Wheatland Voss and four deputies approached the rioters, who gathered near the Durst ranch house. Voss sought to parley with them.

Abusive language was hurled at him and he seized one man and started toward the motor cars. The prisoners' friends leaped at the sheriff and beat him into unconsciousness.

Volley of Shots Exchanged. The deputies made a charge and a volley of shots was exchanged. Maxwell, standing by the automobiles, and S. Riordan, a deputy sheriff, were instantly killed, as were two colored hop pickers.

Nels Nelson, a wealthy farmer, Constable Anderson, two women and three men bystanders were wounded. Several shots, it is reported, were fired into Voss' body as he lay unconscious on the ground.

The driver of the sheriff's automobile was the only man in the car to escape the bullets. He jumped in the machine and fled.

After the firing stopped the survivors of the posse were permitted to gather the dead and injured and take them away. They hastened to Mayville in the second machine.

Reports say that the Durst brothers, owners of the ranch, their mother and two children are surrounded in the home and the rioters had threatened to kill any one who came out.

Armed with shotguns the strikers are patrolling the roads on both sides of the Durst ranch.

One Industrial Worker of the World, taken into custody in the town, said that the ranch employees were striking for better sanitary conditions in camp and in the field and also for fresh water service twice a day.

One of the members of the mob declared the members of the sheriff's posse opened fire first.

The hop pickers did not fire, he said, until two of their number had fallen. Members of the posse denied this.

TWO DEAD IN AUTO CRASH

New York Real Estate Broker and Driver Killed.

Long Beach, N. Y., Aug. 4.—S. Osgood Pell, a millionaire real estate broker of New York city, with his chauffeur, whose name could not be learned, were killed at Long Beach crossing when their automobile was struck by an electric train.

William Laimber and his wife of Hempstead, who were riding in the Pell machine, were badly injured. Laimber, it was said, will not recover.

VENEZUELAN FEDERALS WIN

Claim Victories Over Rebels in State of Tachira.

Caracas, Aug. 4.—The expeditionary army, mobilized to invade the states where rebel forces are operating, has left Caracas.

The government announced that the federal forces had achieved two new victories in the state of Tachira. At Prens Colonel Notois is reported to have defeated General Figueroa and at Espinazo Cabello General Relio is said to have been victorious over General Penela.

A Stingy King.

In the beginning of the eighteenth century the now so powerful Prussian empire was nothing more than the little kingdom of Prussia, having just dropped its title of duchy of Brandenburg. The country was very poor and the military discipline very harsh. Frederick William I. was hard, cross and stingy and did not even know what it was to make a present. His reputation was so widely spread that it became a byword to say that a man had worked for the king of Prussia when he had done an unprofitable task.

BRITISH NAVAL BASE IN BERMUDA

Rumored England Will Establish Strong Station.

MENACES MONROE DOCTRINE

Intention Appears to Be to Safeguard British Shipping Through the Panama Canal as Is Done in the Mediterranean—Other European Powers May Follow Suit.

Washington, Aug. 4.—Keen interest has been aroused in official circles here by a report reaching the state department that Great Britain is contemplating establishing a great naval base in the Bermuda islands.

It is stated authoritatively that the British government has made inquiry concerning plans of the United States for the protection of the Panama canal routes and it has been suggested that this indicates an intention to safeguard British shipping through the isthmus as is done in the Mediterranean.

Officials realize that the problem raised is a tremendous one, involving as it may the very life of the Monroe doctrine and marking, perhaps, a complete revolution in foreign naval policy in the Western hemisphere.

For it is expected that if Great Britain changes her naval policy in American Atlantic waters other European powers probably will follow suit.

While these changes may be expected in the Atlantic waters and the West Indies officials likewise realize that with the opening of the canal the United States must contend with Japan for the domination of the Pacific.

Abandoned Naval Stations.

The British royal navy abandoned its naval stations in this country about ten years ago, when the United States gave up the idea of the construction of the Nicaragua canal and set about digging the big waterway across Panama, the approaching completion of which bids fair to revolutionize international relations.

The three light draft cruisers, the Acropolis, Melbourne and the Sirus, flying the British colors, now base at Kingston, Jamaica.

They are insignificant as war vessels, corresponding to such American cruisers as the New Orleans and Albany.

If Great Britain undertakes to establish herself in Atlantic waters, however, the proposed Bermuda station, near Hamilton, would occupy a formidable position.

By way of looking out for future contingencies at the Pacific terminal of the Panama canal, the British claim ownership of Clipperton island, probably the finest deep water harbor in that part of the Pacific ocean.

COOL WEATHER IS FORECAST

No Warm Wave in Sight for Next Ten Days.

Washington, Aug. 4.—Cooler weather throughout the country except in the Gulf and Pacific Coast states during the present week is predicted by the experts of the weather bureau.

"The distribution of pressure over the North American continent and the adjacent oceans," the weekly forecast said, "is such as to indicate that temperatures below the seasonal average for the present week over the Northwest states, the great Central valleys, the region of the Great Lakes and the Eastern states, and near or slightly above the normal in the Gulf states and on the Pacific coast."

"No warm wave is probable east of the Rocky mountains during the next week or ten days."

MEXICAN WAR VETERAN DIES

Gilbert Barnett Was Last One in South Dakota.

Sioux Falls, S. D., Aug. 4.—Gilbert Barnett, who died in Hanson county, where he had lived since pioneer days, was the last of the Mexican war veterans in South Dakota.

He was born in Ontario county, New York, Sept. 4, 1822, enlisted at Buffalo, N. Y., in 1846 for the war with Mexico, and served in Company M, Second United States artillery, during the entire conflict. During the Civil war he was employed by a quartermaster in the Union army.

In 1881 he came to South Dakota and located on a Hanson county farm. Many years ago he retired from active work. His wife died about twenty years ago. He was for many years an honorary member of the G. A. R. post in Alexandria.

Injures Twenty-nine to Save One.

Hammond, Ind., Aug. 4.—Twenty-nine persons, all of Chicago, were injured when Martin Roy, a chauffeur of the auto bus in which they were riding, drove into a culvert to avoid running down four-year-old Mary Banks here. The bus turned over on the occupants, but with one exception none of the injuries were serious.

ALFRED H. SMITH.
New York Central Man One of Four Railroad Mediators.

The four arbitrators who will meet in New York city next Tuesday to confer on the selection of two more mediators are A. H. Smith, senior vice president of the New York Central railroad, and W. W. Atterbury, vice president of the Pennsylvania railroad, representing the railroads, and Daniel L. Coase, editor and manager of the Railway Trainman, and Lucius E. Sheppard, senior vice president of the Order of Railway Conductors, representing the trainmen and conductors.

SWITCH ENGINE HITS AUTO

One Woman Killed and Several Persons Injured.

Tracy, Minn., Aug. 4.—One woman was killed and another woman, a man, a boy and a girl were injured here when a switch engine struck an automobile on the main crossing of the Northwestern road.

The occupants of the car were Mr. and Mrs. Tom Connors and daughter of Seaford, Minn., and Mrs. Wallace Comstock and son of Minneapolis.

Mrs. Connors was killed instantly, her body being cut in two by the wheels of the engine. Mrs. Comstock was injured seriously and may die. Her son Charles Comstock, sixteen years old, is unconscious and is severely injured. Mr. Connors was shaken up and has a scalp wound.

NINETEEN MINERS KILLED BY BLAST

Several Others Injured in Pennsylvania Colliery.

Tower City, Pa., Aug. 4.—Nineteen miners were killed and several seriously hurt in a double explosion that wrecked the deepest shaft of the East Brookside colliery of the Philadelphia and Reading mines here. That more were not killed is due to the fact that the mine had been shut down for the week end and most of the miners had left the pit.

The first explosion occurred when a quantity of dynamite with which a new vein was to be opened by a gang of experts was set off prematurely by a broken drill. This brought down a heavy fall of coal and rock on the men working the drill.

In a moment there was a second detonation, the explosion of mine gas caused by the dynamite. The second explosion tore out the timbers of the tunnel. The noise was heard for several miles and brought to the shaft's mouth hundreds of miners, their wives and children. While the men frantically went at the work of rescue special policemen from nearby collieries added by state police drove the crowds of onlookers from the mouth of the mine.

MISSING JEWELS ARE FOUND

Hanan Gems Reported Pledged in Boston Brokerage House.

Boston, Aug. 4.—The jewels valued at $125,000 which have been reported as missing from the summer home of Mrs. John H. Hanan at Narragansett Pier since the night of July 25 have been located in the safe of a Boston brokerage house, according to an unconfirmed story published here.

The head of a detective agency in this city which has been at work on the case refused to confirm or deny the report.

According to the published story the jewels were left as securities for a loan of $60,000. They were pledged, it is said, by parties known to members of the firm. How the persons involved got possession of the gems the story adds, is not known.

Smoking and Drinking Spread.

Washington, Aug. 4.—Smoking and drinking is still on the increase, if statistics of internal revenue receipts made public are a good index. The figures show a new record for July with an increase of nearly $1,000,000 over July, 1912, almost all being in taxes on wine, liquor, beer, cigars and cigarettes.

Twenty-three Miners Entombed.

Glasgow, Aug. 4.—The Mavis Valley pit of the Badder colliery, twelve miles from this city, caught fire and twenty-three miners are hopelessly entombed in it.

SAYS WILSON IS TOO INFLUENTIAL

Senator Cummins Criticizes President's Tariff Work.

DRAWING THE COLOR LINE.

Trouble in Democratic Camp Because Negroes Have Been Appointed to Positions That Have Habitually Fallen to Representatives of the Black Race—Currency Legislation.

By ARTHUR W. DUNN.

Washington, Aug. 4.—[Special.]—Power of the executive is always a topic of congressional conversation. Consequently when Senator Cummins, who criticized President Taft for not exerting enough influence on congress, criticized President Wilson for exerting too much influence it is hard for the ordinary layman to find a middle course.

The Iowa senator criticized President Wilson because he forced such low duties in the pending tariff bill. He criticized President Taft because he allowed such high duties to become a part of the Payne-Aldrich bill. Senator Cummins is a middle ground tariff reformer. He does not want high duties, nor does he want low duties. In this view he is supported by men like La Follette, Bristow, Clapp and others who are known as Progressive Republicans, but not bull mooseers.

The People With Him.

"The president," Senator Cummins informed the senate, "has greater power and holds more potent influences in his hands than any other man in the world." A little later he made this sage observation: "It ought to humble us when we look around and find that the people generally not only understand this surrender of our rights and privileges (that is, the surrender by congress), but observe it with a degree of satisfaction. Perhaps this is natural, because congress has come to look upon itself as inferior, and it is very natural to deride a body of men who lack courage to assert themselves and are whipped by a master into submission."

If Cummins Were President.

The Iowa senator has and is supposed to be now a candidate for president. If Cummins were president would he relax the power of the executive? That is not the question. It is congress who opposed his views as wrong, and would be not endeavor to "whip them into line" as every other president has done when his party men in either house are recalcitrant? That is what every president has done or tried to do. And we do not alter human nature by electing a man to the presidency.

Railway Mail Pay.

Will the present congress increase the railway mail pay $15,000,000 a year? That is simply one of a number of foolish questions that the railways have pointed out that they are underpaid that amount. Of course the railways will have an opportunity to refuse to carry the mails and no doubt will do so if they are losing money. The government cannot compel them to carry mails without a fair profit. But meanwhile there will be no increase in railway mail rates save such as seems necessary on account of the parcel post service.

Old Race Problem.

President Wilson does not seem to be enough of a southerner to share the feeling of southern senators and representatives regarding negroes in office. There are certain offices which negroes have always held under all administrations, and Mr. Wilson has appointed negroes to these positions, whereas there is trouble in the Democratic camp and the color line has been drawn. Would it not be strange that a president who has secured all the concessions he demanded on the tariff and possible party harmony on currency should split the party on the race issue?

Currency Caterwauling.

If it were not so serious the caterwauling over the currency legislation would be comical. In years past it always looked upon these contests as the banking and currency committee with amusement, for we all knew that there never was any intention of enacting currency legislation. It was perfectly understood that currency theorists would hold hearings, tell what they thought ought to be done, print large volumes and let it go at that.

But since President Wilson has said there should be currency legislation at this session of congress the situation becomes more serious. The currency committee is fighting just as vigorously and seems to be just as far from results as ever before.

Live and Learn.

The senate discussed at some length the duty on amber. Senator Lodge of Massachusetts and Senator Hughes of New Jersey, both members of the finance committee, said no amber was produced in this country. Then Senator Bristow burrowed into some musty document and found that amber was produced in both states mentioned.

"If there had been amber produced in New Jersey," said Martine of that state, "I am sure I would have been besieged by a lot of tariff mongers asking for a duty upon it."

But they got the duty without asking for it.

Fact.
Tom—Why, how old you look, Jack!
Jack—Yes, I never was so old in my life before.

CLARENCE B. MILLER.
Duluth Congressman Quietly Married at Los Angeles, Cal.

CONGRESSMAN IS A BENEDICT

Clarence B. Miller of Duluth Marries Washington Woman.

Los Angeles, Aug. 4.—Congressman Clarence B. Miller of Duluth and his bride are spending their honeymoon at the Los Angeles beaches. Their quiet wedding came as the culmination of a romance that had its inception in the national capital, where the congressman while attending to his executive duties also laid siege to the heart of Miss Gertrude V. Pattison, a niece of former Surgeon General George Sternberg.

It was to avoid ostentatious display and the curious eyes of a host of friends that the couple met in Los Angeles to speak the words that made them husband and wife. The ceremony was performed without any attendants.

Congressman Miller is a lawyer, forty years old and a graduate of the University of Minnesota.

APPLY TORCH TO SEVERAL BUILDINGS

Incendiaries and Robbers Busy at Virginia, Minn.

Virginia, Minn., Aug. 4.—Incendiaries and robbers made a trip across the city and set fire to Mesburg & Lavick's furniture store, with flats above; to the State bank of Virginia, to the Duluth, Missabe and Northern depot and to Andrew Grande's warehouse.

The Mesburg block was gutted and occupants of three apartments had narrow escapes, having to grope their way out through smoke in their night clothes.

The fires are all known to be of incendiary origin and were reported at intervals of about twenty minutes. At all the places there were oil saturated clothes and paper and attempts were made in every case to break into drawers and open safes.

Entrance was effected in each case through a window. At the bank a small amount in cash and stamps was obtained. The robbers by mistake locked the safe at Mesburg's store, not knowing it was open.

The police received a fake call to a distant part of the city when the gang was ready to operate. One man was seen to be lighting the oil cloth at the Grande warehouse.

Y. W. C. A. SAFE IS ROBBED

Robbers Also Loot Strong Boxes of Kansas City Concerns.

Kansas City, Aug. 4.—Safe blowers ransacked the Y. W. C. A. building here.

The safe of the association was opened and robbed, as were the safes in the office of two business concerns on an upper floor of the five-story building. It is said the robbers secured $300 in all.

The thieves entered through a window in the basement, where the restaurant of the association is located.

DEATH LIST REACHES TEN

Two More May Die as Result of Motorcycle Accident.

Cincinnati, Aug. 4.—The death of Mrs. Malinda Buchman of Covington, Ky., who was injured in the motorcycle accident at the Ludlow, Ky., lagoon last Wednesday night, brought the list of fatalities to ten.

There are still two more victims in the hospital that the physicians say have little chance of recovery.

WOMAN ASSAULTED.

Paris, Mo., Aug. 4.—Mrs. Eliza Mills, aged eighty years, was assaulted here by an unknown man. She was beaten with the man's fists and then choked into insensibility. Mrs. Mills is a widow and lives alone. Neighbors found her in a serious condition.

HUERTA IS NOT READY TO QUIT

FAVORS ONE-CENT POSTAGE

Senator Bryan Opposes Burleson's Orders.

Washington, Aug. 4.—One-cent postage, rather than reduced parcel post rates was the plea of Senator Bryan in a speech in defense of his opposition to Postmaster General Burleson's orders reducing parcel post rates in the first and second zones on Aug. 15. "If we lose over 7 cents a pound in the transportation of newspapers and magazines how can we expect to make a profit in the transportation of merchandise, which is liable to be much more bulky and expensive?" he asked.

"A former postmaster general has transported second class mail matter by freight. With much further extension the present postmaster general will be transporting freight by mail. Unless we stop until we have more information pretty soon the people will go to the freight offices to get their mail and to the postoffice to get their freight."

LAD KILLS BROTHER.

Chandler, Okla., Aug. 4.—Asa Pulks, twelve years old, shot and killed his brother Jesse, six, while playing with a supposedly unloaded shotgun at their home near here. Their mother, a widow, was in Chandler when the accident happened.

Her One Thought.

Mabel had gone to the art exhibit—not that she cared for pictures, but every one went.

A friend saw her and told another friend. Friend No. 2 met her a few days later.

"Why, hello, Mabel! I'm awfully glad to see you! I hear you are interested in art."

"Me? Art who?—Everybody's."

Mexican President Intends to Continue in Office.

NO CHANCE OF RECOGNITION

Washington Officials Note With Keen Interest Developments in Southern Republic and Intimate They Are Not in Favor of Opening Any Diplomatic Negotiations With the Existing Regime.

Washington, Aug. 4.—Official Washington read with keen interest the declaration of Aureliano Urrutia, the Mexican minister of the interior, that Provisional President Huerta would not resign and, moreover, would brook no interference on the part of the foreigners in his administration.

While no plan that the American government has had under serious consideration involved any direct interference in main affairs the admitted attitude of the administration here is one of unalterable opposition to the recognition of the Huerta regime.

The announcement that he has determined not to do so has belocoded the situation somewhat and has spurred the Constitutionalists to further activity to obtain the repeal of the embargo on arms.

They claim that if they do not get arms the revolution will be a protracted struggle. With munitions of war they say they can quickly bring matters to a crisis.

General Eduardo Hay, who has been selected by the Constitutionalists as their spokesman, is now in Washington and will present this view to the senate foreign relations committee during the present week.

Hay first came into prominence during the Madero revolution, when, as a young engineer of Scotch-Mexican parentage, educated at the Notre Dame university, he took up arms against the Diaz government.

He distinguished himself in many of the early battles, especially at Canas Grandes, Chihuahua, where he had a famous charge in which he was wounded several times and lost his left eye. He was taken prisoner by the Diaz troops, but made his escape from the federal hospital under sensational circumstances.

He was one of Madero's chief officers and later was elected to the main congress, being chosen speaker of the chamber of deputies for a short term.

The Constitutionalists are planning much faith in the argument Hay will make before the foreign relations committee

STRIKERS FIGHT WITH DEPUTIES

Four Men Killed in California Hop District.

MILITIA STARTS FOR SCENE

Five Companies of State Troops Leave Sacramento to Restore Order — Workers Demand Higher Wages, Better Sanitary Conditions In Camp and Field and Fresh Water Service Twice Each Day.

Sacramento, Cal., Aug. 4.—A special train carrying five companies of militia has been ordered to leave here for Wheatland, Cal., where four men, including the district attorney of Yuba county, were killed in a revolver battle between 400 striking hop pickers and a sheriff's posse.

The militiamen are equipped with 200 rounds of ammunition to the man and three days' rations.

According to reports reaching here from Wheatland the hop pickers held a meeting and formulated demands for increased wages. All were employees of the Durst ranch, which lies partly within Wheatland township.

Durst and Constable Anderson attended the meeting. When Durst refused their demands the men became abusive. Anderson sought to place the leader under arrest. He was disarmed and beaten, but escaped and telephoned Sheriff George H. Voss of Yuba county for help.

Voss gathered a posse and hastened to Wheatland by automobile from Marysville, the county seat. Manwell accompanied him. When the machine reached Wheatland Voss and four deputies approached the rioters, who gathered near the Durst ranch house. Voss sought to parley with them.

Abusive language was hurled at him and he seized one man and started toward the motor cars. The prisoners' friends leaped at the sheriff and beat him into unconsciousness.

MEXICAN WAR VETERAN DIES

Gilbert Barnett Was Last One in South Dakota.

Sioux Falls, S. D., Aug. 4.—Gilbert Barnett, who died in Hanson county, where he had lived since pioneer days, was the last of the Mexican war veterans in South Dakota.

He was born in Ontario county, New York, Sept. 4, 1832, enlisted at Buffalo, N. Y., in 1846 for the war with Mexico, and served in Company M, Second United States artillery, during the entire conflict. During the Civil war he was employed by a quartermaster in the Union army.

In 1881 he came to South Dakota and located on a Hanson county farm. Many years ago he retired from active work. His wife died about twenty years ago. He was for many years an honorary member of the G. A. R. post in Alexandria.

Injuries Twenty-nine to Save One.

Hammond, Ind., Aug. 4.—Twenty-nine persons, all of Chicago, were injured when Martin Roy, a chauffeur of the auto bus in which they were riding, drove into a culvert to avoid running down four-year-old Mary Banko here. The bus turned over on the occupants, but with one exception none of the injuries were serious.

ALFRED H. SMITH.
New York Central Man One of Four Railroad Mediators.

The four arbitrators who will meet in New York city next Tuesday to confer on the selection of two more mediators are A. H. Smith, senior vice president of the New York Central railroad, and W. V. Atterbury, vice president of the Pennsylvania railroad, representing the railroads, and Daniel L. Coase, editor and manager of the Railway Trainman, and Lucius E. Sheppard, senior vice president of the Order of Railway Conductors, representing the trainmen and conductors.

SWITCH ENGINE HITS AUTO

One Woman Killed and Several Persons Injured.

Tracy, Minn., Aug. 4.—One woman was killed and another woman, a man, a boy and a girl were injured here when a switch engine struck an automobile on the main crossing of the Northwestern road.

The occupants of the car were Mr. and Mrs. Tom Connors and daughter of Seaford, Minn., and Mrs. Wallace Comstock and son of Minneapolis.

Mrs. Connors was killed instantly, her body being cut in two by the wheels of the engine. Mrs. Comstock was injured seriously and may die. Her son Charles Comstock, sixteen years old, is unconscious and is severely injured. Mr. Connors was shaken up and has a scalp wound.

NINETEEN MINERS KILLED BY BLAST

Several Others Injured in Pennsylvania Colliery.

Tower City, Pa., Aug. 4.—Nineteen miners were killed and several seriously hurt in a double explosion that wrecked the deepest shaft of the East Brookside colliery of the Philadelphia and Reading mines here. That more were not killed is due to the fact that the mine had been shut down for the week end and most of the miners had left the pit.

The first explosion occurred when a quantity of dynamite with which a new vein was to be opened by a gang of experts was set off prematurely by a broken drill. This brought down a heavy fall of coal and rock on the men working the drill.

In a moment there was a second detonation, the explosion of mine gas caused by the dynamite. The second explosion tore into the timbers of the tunnel. The noise was heard for several miles and brought to the shaft's mouth hundreds of miners, their wives and children. While the men frantically went at the work of rescue special policemen from nearby collieries aided by state police drove the crowds of onlookers from the mouth of the mine.

MISSING JEWELS ARE FOUND

Hanan Gems Reported Pledged in Boston Brokerage House.

Boston, Aug. 4.—The jewels valued at $125,000 which have been reported as missing from the summer home of Mrs. John H. Hanan at Narragansett Pier since the night of July 25 have been located in the safe of a Boston brokerage house, according to an unconfirmed story published here.

The head of a detective agency in this city which has been at work on the case refused to confirm or deny the report.

According to the published story the jewels were left as securities for a loan of $60,000. They were pledged, it is said, by parties known to members of the firm. How the persons involved got possession of the gems the story adds, is not known.

Smoking and Drinking Spread.

Washington, Aug. 4.—Smoking and drinking is still on the increase, if statistics of internal revenue receipts made public are a good index. The figures show a new record for July with an increase of nearly $1,000,000 over July, 1912, almost all being in taxes on wine, liquor, beer, cigars and cigarettes.

Twenty-three Miners Entombed.

Glasgow, Aug. 4.—The Mavis Valley pit of the Badder colliery, twelve miles from this city, caught fire and twenty-three miners are hopelessly entombed in it.

SAYS WILSON IS TOO INFLUENTIAL

Senator Cummins Criticizes President's Tariff Work.

DRAWING THE COLOR LINE.

Trouble in Democratic Camp Because Negroes Have Been Appointed to Positions That Have Habitually Fallen to Representatives of the Black Race—Currency Legislation.

By ARTHUR W. DUNN.

Washington, Aug. 4.—[Special.]—Power of the executive is always a topic of congressional conversation. Consequently when Senator Cummins, who criticized President Taft for not exerting enough influence on congress, criticizes President Wilson for exerting too much influence it is hard for the ordinary layman to find a middle course.

The Iowa senator criticized President Wilson because he forced such low duties in the pending tariff bill. He criticized President Taft because he allowed such high duties to become a part of the Payne-Aldrich bill. Senator Cummins is a middle ground tariff reformer. He does not want high duties, nor does he want low duties. In this view he is supported by men like La Follette, Bristow, Clapp and others who are known as Progressive Republicans, but not bull moose.

The People With Him.

"The president," Senator Cummins informed the senate, "has greater power and holds more potent influences in his hands than any other man in the world." A little later he made this sage observation: "It ought to humiliate us when we look around and find that the people generally not only understand this surrender of our rights and privileges (that is, the surrender by congress), but observe it with a degree of satisfaction. Perhaps this is natural, because congress has come to look upon itself as inferior, and it is very natural to deride a body of men who lack courage to assert themselves and are whipped by a master into submission."

If Cummins Were President.

The Iowa senator has and is supposed to be now a candidate for president. If Cummins were president would he relax the power of the executive? Would he not consider those in congress who opposed his views as wrong, and would he not endeavor to "whip them into line" as every other president has done when his party men in either house are recalcitrant? That is what every president has done or tried to do. And we do not alter human nature by electing a man to the presidency.

Railway Mail Pay.

Will the present congress increase the railway mail pay $15,000,000 a year? That is simply one of a number of foolish questions, but the railways have pointed out that they are underpaid that amount. Of course the railways will have an opportunity to refuse to carry the mails and no doubt will do so if they are losing money. The government cannot compel them to carry mails without a fair profit. But meanwhile there will be no increase in railway mail rates save such as seems necessary on account of the parcel post service.

Old Race Problem.

President Wilson does not seem to be enough of a southerner to share the feeling of southern senators and representatives regarding negroes in office. There are certain offices which negroes have always held under all administrations, and Mr. Wilson has appointed negroes to these positions, whereas there is trouble in the Democratic camp and the color line has been drawn. Would it not be strange that a president who has secured all the concessions he demanded on the tariff and possible party harmony on currency should split the party on the race issue?

Currency Caterwauling.

If it were not so serious the caterwauling over the currency legislation would be comical. In years past it was always looked upon these contests as the banking and currency committee with amusement, for we all knew that there never was any intention of acting currency legislation. It was perfectly understood that currency theorists would hold hearings, tell what they thought ought to be done, print large volumes and let it go at that.

But since President Wilson has said there should be currency legislation in this session of congress the situation becomes more serious. The currency committee is fighting just as vigorously and seems to be as far as from results as ever before.

Live and Learn.

The senate discussed at some length the duty on amber. Senator Lodge of Massachusetts and Senator Hughes of New Jersey, both members of the finance committee, said no amber was produced in this country. Then Senator Bristow burrowed into some musty document and found that amber was produced in both states mentioned.

"If there had been amber produced in New Jersey," said Martine of that state, "I am sure I would have been besieged by a lot of tariff mongers asking for a duty upon it."

Fact.

Tom—Why, how old you look, Jack! Jack—Yes, I never was so old in my life before.

CLARENCE B. MILLER.
Duluth Congressman Quietly Married at Los Angeles, Cal.

CONGRESSMAN IS A BENEDICT

Clarence B. Miller of Duluth Marries Washington Woman.

Los Angeles, Aug. 4.—Congressman Clarence B. Miller of Duluth and his bride are spending their honeymoon at the Los Angeles beaches. Their quiet wedding came as the culmination of a romance that had its inception in the national capital, where the congressman while attending to his executive duties also laid siege to the heart of Miss Gertrude V. Pattison, a niece of former Surgeon General George Sternberg.

It was to avoid ostentatious display and the curious eyes of a host of friends that the couple met in Los Angeles to speak the words that made them husband and wife. The ceremony was performed without any attendants.

Congressman Miller is a lawyer, forty years old and a graduate of the University of Minnesota.

APPLY TORCH TO SEVERAL BUILDINGS

Incendiaries and Robbers Busy at Virginia, Minn.

Virginia, Minn., Aug. 4.—Incendiaries and robbers made a trip across the city and set fire to Mesburg & Lavick's furniture store, with flats above; to the State bank of Virginia, to the Duluth, Missabe and Northern depot and to Andrew Grande's warehouse.

The Mesburg block was gutted and occupants of three apartments had narrow escapes, having to grope their way out through smoke in their night clothes.

The fires are all known to be of incendiary origin and were reported at intervals of about twenty minutes. At all the places there were all saturated clothes and paper and attempts were made in every case to break into drawers and open safes.

Entrance was effected in each case through a window. At the bank a small amount in cash and stamps was obtained. The robbers by mistake locked the safe at Mesburg's store, not knowing it was open.

The police received a fake call to a distant part of the city when the gang was ready to operate. One man was seen to be lighting the oilied clothing at the Grande warehouse.

Y. W. C. A. SAFE IS ROBBED

Robbers Also Loot Strong Boxes of Kansas City Concerns.

Kansas City, Aug. 4.—Safe blowers ransacked the Y. W. C. A. building here.

The safe of the association was opened and robbed, as were the safes in the office of two business concerns on an upper floor of the five-story building. It is said the robbers secured $300 in all.

The thieves entered through a window in the basement, where the restaurant of the association is located.

DEATH LIST REACHES TEN

Two More May Die as Result of Motorcycle Accident.

Cincinnati, Aug. 4.—The death of Mrs. Malinda Buchman of Covington, Ky., who was injured in the motorcycle accident at the Ludlow, Ky., lagoon last Wednesday night, brought the list of fatalities to ten.

There are still two more victims in the hospital that the physicians say have little chance of recovery.

WOMAN ASSAULTED.

Paris, Mo., Aug. 4.—Mrs. Eliza Mills, aged eighty years, was assaulted here by an unknown man. She was beaten with the man's fists and then choked into insensibility. Mrs. Mills is a widow and lives alone. Neighbors found her in a serious condition.

HUERTA IS NOT READY TO QUIT

FAVORS ONE-CENT POSTAGE

Senator Bryan Opposes Burleson's Orders.

Washington, Aug. 4.—One-cent postage, rather than reduced parcel post rates was the plea of Senator Bryan in a speech in defense of his opposition to Postmaster General Burleson's orders reducing parcel post rates in the first and second zones on Aug. 15. "If we lose over 7 cents a pound in the transportation of newspapers and magazines how can we expect to make a profit in the transportation of merchandise, which is liable to be much more bulky and expensive?" he asked.

"A former postmaster general has transported second class mail matter by freight. With much further extension the present postmaster general will be transporting freight by mail. Unless we stop until we have more information pretty soon the people will go to the freight offices to get their mail and to the postoffice to get their freight."

LAD KILLS BROTHER.

Chandler, Okla., Aug. 4.—Asa Fulk, twelve years old, shot and killed his brother Jesse, six, while playing with a supposedly unloaded shotgun at their home near here. Their mother, a widow, was in Chandler when the accident happened.

Her One Thought.

Mabel had gone to the art exhibit—not that she cared for pictures, but every one went.

A friend saw her and told another friend. Friend No. 2 met her a few days later.

"Why, hello, Mabel! I'm awfully glad to see you! I hear you are interested in art."

"Me? Art who?"—Everybody's.

Mexican President Intends to Continue in Office.

NO CHANCE OF RECOGNITION

Washington Officials Note With Keen Interest Developments in Southern Republic and Intimate They Are Not in Favor of Opening Any Diplomatic Negotiations With the Existing Regime.

Washington, Aug. 4.—Official Washington read with keen interest the declaration of Aureliano Urrutia, the Mexican minister of the interior, that Provisional President Huerta would not resign and, moreover, would brook no interference on the part of the foreigners in his administration. While no plan that the American government has had under serious consideration involved any direct interference in main affairs the admitted attitude of the administration here is one of unalterable opposition to the recognition of the Huerta regime.

The announcement that he has determined not to do so has belittled the situation somewhat and has spurred the Constitutionalists to further activity to obtain the repeal of the embargo on arms.

They claim that if they do not get arms the revolution will be a protracted struggle. With munitions of war they say they can quickly bring matters to a crisis.

General Eduardo Hay, who has been selected by the Constitutionalists as their spokesman, is now in Washington and will present this view to the senate foreign relations committee during the present week.

Hay first came into prominence during the Madero revolution, when, as a young engineer of Scotch-Mexican parentage, educated at the Notre Dame university, he took up arms against the Diaz government.

He distinguished himself in many of the early battles, especially at Casas Grandes, Chihuahua, where he led a famous charge in which he was wounded several times and lost his left eye. He was taken prisoner by the Diaz troops, but made his escape from the federal hospital under sensational circumstances.

He was one of Madero's chief officers and later was elected to the main congress, being chosen speaker of the chamber of deputies for a short term.

The Constitutionalists are planning much faith in the argument Hay will make before the foreign relations committee.

MUSIC AND DRAMA

At the Grand.

For Sunday and Monday the Grand showed the Mutual Weekly series of happenings of the week. These are always very interesting and keep the spectator informed of current events.

"Wallington's Wallet," by the Reliance company, is a very pleasing drama.

"A Bandit" and "Peeping Pete" are roaring Keystone comedies. Gene McCarthy sings "I Want a Man Like Dad."

At the Empress

"The Hidden Witness" is the feature film at the Empress theatre. Two little children are the means of exposing an adventurer's cupidity.

In the "Drop of Blood" the films tell the story of the clever manner in which the wife of his victim brings a murdered to justice. The plot of this gripping photo-play is worked out in a very effective manner, the picture being fully up to the standard of those always shown in this pretty little theatre.

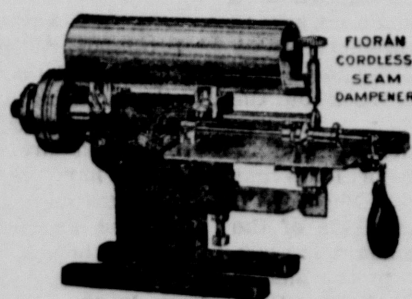

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. MUSIC AND DRAMA
At the Grand.
For Sunday and Monday the Grand showed the Mutual Weekly series of happenings of the week. These are always very interesting and keep the spectator informed of current events.
"Wallingford's Wallet," by the Reliance company, is a very pleasing drama.
"A Bandit" and "Peeping Pete" are roaring Keystone comedies.
Gene McCarthy sings "I Want a Man Like Dad."
At the Empress
"The Hidden Witness" is the feature film at the Empress theatre. Two little children are the means of exposing an adventurer's cupidity.
In the "Drop of Blood" the films tell the story of the clever manner in which the wife of his victim brings a murderer to justice. The plot of this gripping photo-play is worked out in a very effective manner, the picture being fully up to the standard of those always shown in this pretty little theatre.
There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced remedy, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven Catarrh to be a constitutional disease, and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only Constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials. Address: F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, O. Sold by Druggists, etc. Take Hall's Kidney Pills for constipation.

BRAINERD BEATS GOLDEN RULES

Superior, Team is Nearly Blanked in a Fast Game Sunday Afternoon at Koering Grounds

RED COOK IS IN FINE FORM

Likes Out 10—Brainerd Gets its Half Dozen Runs in the Very First Inning

Brainerd, playing a fast game of all at the Koering grounds Sunday afternoon, almost blanked the Golden Rules, of Superior, the final figures leading 6 to 1 in favor of the locals.

Bradley pitched for the Superior team and Brainerd took kindly to his delivery in the first inning, 10 men coming to bat who pounded out 4 hits and took advantage of several onehead plays made by the visitors. There ever was a team played off a tect, it was the Golden Rules.

After that Brainerd got no more runs because Bradley tightened down. Superior nosed out a run in the seventh inning and saved itself from a shutout. Cook was in fine form, striking out 10 men. The old was strengthened and the in-out field put up an almost airtight defense.

The Golden Rules, eager to do to others as they had been done by, tried to run in a bunch of figures on the score board, but had to give it up. It will be interesting to watch the series of games between the Golden Rules and the Red Devils next Saturday and Sunday. Brainerd may be regarded as an indicator of the ability of each team, having defeated one and lost the other game.

The score:

Golden Rules	ab	r	h	po	a	e
Nacey, rf	4	0	3	2	1	0
Campbell, cf	3	0	1	0	0	0
Ennis, 3b	4	0	0	2	2	2

Summary—Two base hits, Larson, Cook, Mandsley. Stolen bases, Laurmon, Templeton, Nacey, Olson, Bradley. Base on balls, off Cook 3. Struck out by Bradley 3, Cook 10.

DIES FROM BLOW STRUCK BY GREEK

Clinton Ayres, aged 16, died this morning at a local hospital from a broken spleen. He had been struck on the head by a Greek in Dillworth, and in falling was injured in the side, which eventually resulted in his death. The boy claimed he had yelled at the Greek and the latter grew angry and struck him and then fled to North Dakota. The lad came from Butte, Mont., and had been visiting his aunt at Staples and the body was sent to that point for burial.

Wild pitch, Bradley 2. Double plays Kingen to Larson, Innes to Williamson to Cooke. Williamson to Cook. Time of game 1 hour 37 minutes. Umpires, Hall and Merrill.

Red Devils 5, L. F. 4
The Red Devils beat Little Falls by a 5 to 4 score Saturday. It was 4 to 4 at the end of the ninth inning. Dominick pitched for Little Falls.

Red Devils 16, L. F. 8
Sunday's game between the Red Devils and Little Falls at Little Falls resulted in a terrific drubbing at the hands of the colored boys, the score reading Red Devils 16, Little Falls 8. Butler was in the box for the Blues.

The Red Devils play the Superior Golden Rules at Superior next Saturday and Sunday, August 9 and 10.

Athletics Beat Pickets

The Athletics, a team of 18 year old players, beat the Pickets of Northeast Brainerd by a 5 to 2 score. The batteries for the Athletics, Erickson and Leonard; for the Pickets, Ebinger and Moulder. Erickson had perfect control of his spit ball, allowing only 4 hits and striking out 16.

YEOMEN CONVENTION

Fourth Quadrennial Conclave to be Held in Oklahoma City Next June 10 to 14

The society's rates were not raised, either upon its old or new members. Rates to remain the same at all ages. The age limit for entrance for benefit membership was reduced from 50 to 45 years.

FIRST ORE FROM CUYUNA-DULUTH

Excursion Train From Duluth Visits Mine at Ironton Sunday on Occasion First Shipment

FIVE CARS OF ORE LOADED

Many Brainerd People Attend Celebration—Cuyuna-Mille Lacs Mine Also Visited

Ironton, Minn., August 3—The first shipment of iron ore from the Cuyuna-Duluth Iron Co. mine at the north end of Ironton was celebrated today in appropriate manner, a nine coach special train being run from Duluth to Ironton on the Northern Pacific and carrying 481 passengers. In addition there were many visitors from Brainerd, Fargo, Staples, Milwaukee, Superior, Foley, Crosby, Deerwood and other range towns. The 17 piece Ironton brass band met the excursionists at the depot and an address of welcome was delivered by Mayor Krueger.

The Third Regiment band of Duluth headed the procession of excursionists who marched about town and then to the Ironton roller rink where Emil Hollander, as chief, had prepared a satisfying meal. The rink was christened the Cuyuna-Duluth hotel. The line of march was then taken up to the mine and there the stockholders and their friends formed a large circle and were photographed by Duluth men. The mine was examined and its inspection satisfied the visitors.

The Cuyuna-Duluth mine enjoys the best record made in shaft-sinking and shipping. In eight months time from the date of first sinking, the shaft was completed, machinery installed, hoist and head frame erected and ore hoisted. Five cars were loaded at the shaft and were started on their way to the Lake Superior Iron & Chemical Co., Ashland, Wis. The ore averages from 65 to 66 per cent and nets $4.20 to the ton.

The shaft is 231 feet deep and has been opened up at the 200 foot level where drifting has been done a distance of 220 feet. The overburden measures about 100 feet. The power house has a battery of two boilers of 150 horsepower each built by the Gogebic Iron Co. of Duluth. The large hoist was built by the National Iron Co., of Duluth. William Pascoe is the superintendent, Ike Williams the mining captain, Nick Williams master mechanic and W. J. Gabrio, engineer.

Many of the crowd saw the ball game between the Ironton team and the Northern Hardware Co. of Duluth nine. The latter won by the score of 8 to 7. Young Seibenthal, mining engineer of the Inland Steel

Co. mine twirled for Ironton and Stokes was at the receiving end.

Many of the excursionists made the trip to the Cuyuna-Mille Lacs mine to the north of the Cuyuna-Duluth and also situated on the Cuyuna Northern railway, as this branch of the Northern Pacific is termed. The shaft is down 265 feet and the levels at 125 feet and 200 feet are being worked. The water is being easily handled. The pumping capacity of the mine is 1,500 gallons in excess of what is needed. One thousand gallons a minute are now pumped. Should the emergency arise, the pumps can be speeded to 3,000 gallons a minute. On Friday 8 cars of ore were shipped, the average percentage of iron being 59.28. The ore is running well in manganese.

The Locker-Donahue people of Duluth, controlling both mines, are the first to give tonnage to the Northern Pacific railway. Their ore is the only ore at present time being hauled from the Cuyuna range by the Northern Pacific. Of interest is the announcement that this railway will tap the shaft which the Duluth-Brainerd Mining Co. is to put in section 32, township 47, range 29.

Notes of the Excursion

John H. Hill and E. A. Lamb, Jr., are the fee owners of the property being mined by the Cuyuna-Duluth at Ironton. Mr. Hill was at Chicago attending to business matters and Mr. Lamb was at Minneapolis. Mr. Lamb, Sr., was an interested spectator at the mine celebration.

Carl Zapffe, of Brainerd, of the Northwestern Improvement company, subsidiary of the Northern Pacific railway, viewed the first shipment of ore.

Among Brainerd people present were Wm. Barron, C. B. Rowley, a director of the Cuyuna-Duluth company, George H. Gardner, P. F. Nettleton, Erick Kronberg, C. A. Russell, F. E. Ebner, John Hurley, Mr. and Mrs. John A. Hoffbauer, Richard Ilse, Al. Porsch, Ben Lagerquist, Wm. Turcotte, Thomas Russell, P. G. Shannon, Miss Anna McGill, Miss Julia McGill, Miss Tillie Ruhl, Mr. and Mrs. William Van Alstine, Frank Brandt, Ed. Levant, Chris Senti, Ed. Soloski, Gust Erickson, C. L. Johnson, John Russell, H. L. Jones, R. H. Carr, Louis T. Greshback.

From St. Cloud were George Guy, Rufe Hammond, W. L. Taylor and C. Russell.

The Fargo, N. D., visitors included F. W. Thomas, a director of the Cuyuna-Duluth company, L. M. Ellefsen, J. B. Eckman, F. F. Frater and Henry Anderson.

ORDERED TO REDUCE RATES

Special to The Dispatch:

Washington, D. C., August 4—Reductions in express rates which will meet the companies fully $26,000,000 annually, approximately sixteen per cent of their gross revenues, were ordered by the interstate commerce commission today to become effective on or before October 15. Notable reforms in practices were also ordered.

STORE CLOSING

Stores of City Close 6 P. M. Tuesday as Usual—Merchants-Clerks Picnic Wednesday

Stores of the city will close as usual at six o'clock on Tuesday evening, August 5, according to the schedule entered into by the Merchants and Clerks. This is published so that housewives and others will not be led to believe that the stores will be open later.

The picnic comes the next day, Wednesday, August 6, and all concluding arrangements are being rushed to completion. So much interest has been worked up in the outing that it is fair to believe that it will be a general holiday for Brainerd and Merrifield.

Two special trains will provide ample means of conveyance to the grounds and there are in addition, of course, the regular trains on the Minnesota & International railway. The first train leaves at 8 o'clock and the second at 9 o'clock in the morning. Returning, the first special leaves at 6 and the second at 9 P. M.

The agonizing discomfort and sense of suffocation that accompany hay fever and asthma may be greatly alleviated by the use of Foley's Honey and Tar Compound. It has a soothing effect on the mucous linings, and relieves the gasping and tickling sensation in the throat and bronchial tubes.—Adv. H. P. DUNN

BUSH AT CHICAGO

St. Paul Pioneer Press Refers to Brainerd Boy's Pitching in the Windy City

Bush has his friends in St. Paul as well as Brainerd as is attested by the mention made of Leslie under the heading, "The Northern Woods are Full of Them," which appeared in the St. Paul Pioneer Press. E. G. Dougherty, the sporting editor, gave Bush a good mention for his work in the Chicago-Philadelphia game. He said:

"The Bush family from Brainerd made a trip to Chicago the other day to see the pride of their household hurl the elusive pill against the White Hose contingent. The pride hurled, but did not win, and the folks from home were sorry. There are other days for Joe, however, for his work thus far in Philadelphia Athletic uniform has been prolific of success and his folks can come another day and see him win. The acquiring of this Brainerd youth by Connie Mack from the Missoula, Mont., club when Bush has not served his foolers in the Montana wilds for more than one season, provides an illuminating example that the A. A. magnates might follow to their own profit. These woods up north are as full of promising baseball material as any given area out of doors, and the Bushs, Schauers, etc., are only the foam on the wealth of baseball stock that is available if the scouts will prosecute their gum-shoe efforts in the right direction.

STREET RAILWAY FRANCHISE

We have said repeatedly, and we say it again, that R. R. Wise and his clique want the street railway franchise. Henry I. Cohen is R. R. Wise's faint reflection and close personal friend. On Saturday Cohen told Joseph L. Hartell, blacksmith, in the presence of Freemond Turcotte, carpenter, that local capitalists were organizing a company to "save the City of Brainerd" by taking the street railway franchise away from the Minnesota Central Railway Company. The affidavits of Messrs. Hartell and Turcotte follow:

State of Minnesota,

County of Crow Wing ss.

Joseph L. Hartell, being first duly sworn, deposes and says, that on Saturday, August 2, 1913, about 10 o'clock in the morning that Henry I. Cohen, in his (Hartell's) blacksmith shop in the city of Brainerd, told him that local capitalists were about to organize a company to save the city of Brainerd and to take the street railway franchise away from Reid. He abused Mr. Reid personally.

Mr. Cohen said the city should not let Mr. Reid into Brainerd with his Minnesota Central Railway company. "Mr. Reid," said Mr. Cohen, "has no money. He wants the franchise. He is no gentleman."

As I understood the matter in my conversation with Mr. Cohen the supposition was to organize a company and get the franchise and thus defeat Mr. Reid. Mr. Cohen admitted that a street railway in Brainerd would not pay for some time and that the company would have to extend it into the country to make it pay. I told Mr. Cohen that I thought he was among those who kicked against the city owning its own water works. That we have a better system now than we had before and that our water pipes don't burst every time we put on a little pressure when we have a fire.

Fremond Turcotte, being first duly sworn, deposes and says, that he has read the above affidavit by Joseph L. Hartell; that he was present during the conversation between Henry I. Cohen and Mr. Hartell on Saturday morning, August 2nd, and that the statements made in Mr. Hartell's affidavit are correct.

In view of these affidavits, do you doubt that Wise and his clique are

after the franchise?

Everybody in Brainerd knows the sterling honesty of John A. Hoffbauer, city editor of the Brainerd Dispatch and the reliability of The Dispatch newspaper. Mr. Hoffbauer tried the best he could this morning to get the facts about the proposed Wise-Cohen company from both Wise and Cohen, and failed. Here is Mr. Hoffbauer's affidavit:

State of Minnesota,

County of Crow Wing ss.

I saw Henry I. Cohen Monday morning, August 4, 1913, and asked him regarding his conversation with Joseph L. Hartell, the blacksmith, if Mr. Cohen had used these words: "Capitalists of Brainerd were organizing a street railway company to get the franchise and save the city of Brainerd." He said he had not said that.

He said that his statement was that there were plenty of men here who could organize a company. His conversation with Mr. Hartell he said was a personal conversation and as such he did not want it quoted.

Asked if he knew if a local company was being organized to build a street railway, he said he did not know anything about it.

I asked R. R. Wise at the Citizens' State bank if he knew of a local company being organized to build a street railway and he said he would not tell me and to excuse him from making any reply, as I could not get it straight anyway.

We think we have established our case; that R. R. Wise and his clique want the street railway franchise for themselves; that as the case now stands it is:

R. R. Wise & Company vs the city of Brainerd. Which should prevail?

Come to the council meeting tonight and show by your presence where you stand.

RAINERD BEATS GOLDEN RULES

Superior, Team is Nearly Blanked in a Fast Game Sunday Afternoon at Koering Grounds

RED COOK IS IN FINE FORM

Hikes Out 10—Brainerd Gets its Half Dozen Runs in the Very First Inning

Brainerd, playing a fast game of all at the Koering grounds Sunday afternoon, almost blanked the Golden Rules, of Superior, the final figures leading 6 to 1 in favor of the locals. Bradley pitched for the Superior team and Brainerd took kindly to his delivery in the first inning, 10 men coming to bat who pounded out 4 hits and took advantage of several onehead plays made by the visitors. There ever was a team played off as fast, it was the Golden Rules.

After that Brainerd got no more runs because Bradley tightened down. Superior nosed out a run in the seventh inning and saved itself from a shutout. Cook was in fine form, striking out 10 men. The field was strengthened and the in-out field put up an almost airtight defense.

The Golden Rules, eager to do to others as they had been done by, tried to run in a bunch of figures on the score board, but had to give it up. It will be interesting to watch the series of games between the Golden Rules and the Red Devils next Saturday and Sunday. Brainerd may be regarded as an indicator of the ability of each team, having defeated one and lost the other game.

The score:

DIES FROM BLOW STRUCK BY GREEK

Clinton Ayres, aged 16, died this morning at a local hospital from a broken spleen. He had been struck on the head by a Greek in Dillworth, and in falling was injured in the side, which eventually resulted in his death. The boy claimed he had yelled at the Greek and the latter grew angry and struck him and then fled to North Dakota. The lad came from Butte, Mont., and had been visiting his aunt at Staples and the body was sent to that point for burial.

Wild pitch, Bradley 2. Double plays Kingen to Larson, Innes to Williamson to Cooke. Williamson to Cook. Time of game 1 hour 37 minutes. Umpires, Hall and Merrill.

Red Devils 5, L. F. 4

The Red Devils beat Little Falls by a 5 to 4 score Saturday. It was 4 to 4 at the end of the ninth inning. Dominick pitched for Little Falls.

Red Devils 16, L. F. 8

Sunday's game between the Red Devils and Little Falls at Little Falls resulted in a terrific drubbing at the hands of the colored boys, the score reading Red Devils 16, Little Falls 8. Butler was in the box for the Blues.

The Red Devils play the Superior Golden Rules at Superior next Saturday and Sunday, August 9 and 10.

Athletics Beat Pickets

The Athletics, a team of 18 year old players, beat the Pickets of Northeast Brainerd by a 5 to 2 score. The batteries for the Athletics, Erickson and Leonard; for the Pickets, Ebinger and Moulder. Erickson had perfect control of his spit ball, allowing only 4 hits and striking out 16.

FIRST ORE FROM CUYUNA-DULUTH

Excursion Train From Duluth Visits Mine at Ironton Sunday on Occasion First Shipment

FIVE CARS OF ORE LOADED

Many Brainerd People Attend Celebration—Cuyuna-Mille Lacs Mine Also Visited

Ironton, Minn., August 3—The first shipment of iron ore from the Cuyuna-Duluth Iron Co. mine at the north end of Ironton was celebrated today in appropriate manner, a nine coach special train being run from Duluth to Ironton on the Northern Pacific and carrying 481 passengers. In addition there were many visitors from Brainerd, Fargo, Staples, Milwaukee, Superior, Foley, Crosby, Deerwood and other range towns. The 17 piece Ironton brass band met the excursionists at the depot and an address of welcome was delivered by Mayor Krueger.

The Third Regiment band of Duluth headed the procession of excursionists who marched about town and then to the Ironton roller rink where Emil Hollander, as chef, had prepared a satisfying meal. The rink was christened the Cuyuna-Duluth hotel. The line of march was then taken up to the mine and there the stockholders and their friends formed a large circle and were photographed by Duluth men. The mine was examined and its inspection satisfied the visitors.

The Cuyuna-Duluth mine enjoys the best record made in shaft-sinking and shipping. In eight months time from the date of first sinking, the shaft was completed, machinery installed, hoist and head frame erected and ore hoisted. Five cars were loaded at the shaft and were started on their way to the Lake Superior Iron & Chemical Co., Ashland, Wis. The ore averages from 65 to 66 per cent and nets $4.20 to the ton.

The shaft is 231 feet deep and has been opened up at the 200 foot level where drifting has been done a distance of 220 feet. The overburden measures about 100 feet. The power house has a battery of two boilers of 150 horsepower each built by the Gogebic Iron Co. of Duluth. The large hoist was built by the National Iron Co., of Duluth. William Pascoe is the superintendent, Ike Williams the mining captain, Nick Williams master mechanic and W. J. Gabrio, engineer.

Many of the crowd saw the ball game between the Ironton team and the Northern Hardware Co. of Duluth nine. The latter won by the score of 8 to 7. Young Seibenthal, mining engineer of the Inland Steel

Co. mine twirled for Ironton and Stokes was at the receiving end.

Many of the excursionists made the trip to the Cuyuna-Mille Lacs mine to the north of the Cuyuna-Duluth and also situated on the Cuyuna Northern railway, as this branch of the Northern Pacific is termed. The shaft is down 265 feet and the levels at 125 feet and 200 feet are being worked. The water is being easily handled. The pumping capacity of the mine is 1,500 gallons in excess of what is needed. One thousand gallons a minute are now pumped. Should the emergency arise, the pumps can be speeded to 3000 gallons a minute. On Friday 8 cars of ore were shipped, the average percentage of iron being 59.28. The ore is running well in manganese.

The Locker-Donahue people of Duluth, controlling both mines, are the first to give tonnage to the Northern Pacific railway. Their ore is the only ore at present time being hauled from the Cuyuna range by the Northern Pacific. Of interest is the announcement that this railway will tap the shaft which the Duluth-Brainerd Mining Co. is to put in section 32, township 47, range 29.

Notes of the Excursion

John H. Hill and E. A. Lamb, Jr., are the fee owners of the property being mined by the Cuyuna-Duluth at Ironton. Mr. Hill was at Chicago attending to business matters and Mr. Lamb was at Minneapolis. Mr. Lamb, Sr., was an interested spectator at the mine celebration.

Carl Zapffe, of Brainerd, of the Northwestern Improvement company, subsidiary of the Northern Pacific railway, viewed the first shipment of ore.

Among Brainerd people present were Wm. Barron, C. B. Rowley, a director of the Cuyuna-Duluth company, George H. Gardner, P. F. Nettleton, Erick Kronberg, C. A. Russell, F. E. Ebner, John Hurley, Mr. and Mrs. John A. Hoffbauer, Richard Ilse, Al. Porsch, Ben Lagerquist, Wm. Turcotte, Thomas Russell, P. G. Shannon, Miss Anna McGill, Miss Julia McGill, Miss Tillie Ruhl, Mr. and Mrs. William Van Alstine, Frank Brandt, Ed. Levant, Chris Senti, Ed. Soloski, Gust Erickson, C. L. Johnson, John Russell, H. L. Jones, R. H. Carr, Louis T. Greshback.

From St. Cloud were George Guy, Rufe Hammond, W. L. Taylor and C. Russell.

The Fargo, N. D., visitors included F. W. Thomas, a director of the Cuyuna-Duluth company, L. M. Ellefsen, J. B. Eckman, F. F. Frater and Henry Anderson.

From Staples were Thomas McGuire, a director of the company, and Attorneys R. N. Gardner and C. F. Cashman, George W. Beckett, John Downing, George Robbers, A. Winters. An auto brought up T. J. Shark.

Special to The Dispatch:

Washington, D. C., August 4--Reductions in express rates which will meet the companies fully $26,000,000 annually, approximately sixteen per cent of their gross revenues, were ordered by the interstate commerce commission today to become effective on or before October 15. Notable reforms in practices were also ordered.

STORE CLOSING

Stores of City Close 6 P. M. Tuesday as Usual—Merchants-Clerks Picnic Wednesday

Stores of the city will close as usual at six o'clock on Tuesday evening, August 5, according to the schedule entered into by the Merchants and Clerks. This is published so that housewives and others will not be led to believe that the stores will be open later.

The picnic comes the next day, Wednesday, August 6, and all concluding arrangements are being rushed to completion. So much interest has been worked up in the outing that it is fair to believe that it will be a general holiday for Brainerd and Merrifield.

Two special trains will provide ample means of conveyance to the grounds and there are in addition, of course, the regular trains on the Minnesota & International railway.

The first train leaves at 8 o'clock and the second at 9 o'clock in the morning. Returning, the first special leaves at 6 and the second at 9 P. M.

BUSH AT CHICAGO

St. Paul Pioneer Press Refers to Brainerd Boy's Pitching in the Windy City

Bush has his friends in St. Paul as well as Brainerd as is attested by the mention made of Leslie under the heading, "The Northern Woods are Full of Them," which appeared in the St. Paul Pioneer Press. E. G. Dougherty, the sporting editor, gave Bush a good mention for his work in the Chicago-Philadelphia game. He said:

"The Bush family from Brainerd made a trip to Chicago the other day to see the pride of their household hurl the elusive pill against the White Hose contingent. The pride hurled, but did not win, and the folks from home were sorry. There are other days for Joe, however, for his work thus far in Philadelphia Athletic uniform has been prolific of success and his folks can come another day and see him win. The acquiring of this Brainerd youth by Connie Mack from the Missoula, Mont., club when Bush has not served his footers in the Montana wilds for more than one season, provides an illuminating example that the A. STREET RAILWAY FRANCHISE

We have said repeatedly, and we say it again, that R. R. Wise and his clique want the street railway franchise. Henry I. Cohen is R. R. Wise's faint reflection and close personal friend. On Saturday Cohen told Joseph L. Hartell, blacksmith, in the presence of Freemond Turcotte, carpenter, that local capitalists were organizing a company to "save the City of Brainerd" by taking the street railway franchise away from the Minnesota Central Railway Company. The affidavits of Messrs. Hartell and Turcotte follow:

State of Minnesota,
County of Crow Wing ss.

Joseph L. Hartell, being first duly sworn, deposes and says, that on Saturday, August 2, 1913, about 10 o'clock in the morning that Henry I. Cohen, in his (Hartell's) blacksmith shop in the city of Brainerd, told him that local capitalists were about to organize a company to save the city of Brainerd and to take the street railway franchise away from Reid. He abused Mr. Reid personally.

Mr. Cohen said the city should not let Mr. Reid into Brainerd with his Minnesota Central Railway company. "Mr. Reid," said Mr. Cohen, "has no money. He wants the franchise. He is no gentleman."

As I understood the matter in my conversation with Mr. Cohen the supposition was to organize a company and get the franchise and thus defeat Mr. Reid. Mr. Cohen admitted that a street railway in Brainerd would not pay for some time and that the company would have to extend it into the country to make it pay. I told Mr. Cohen that I thought he was among those who kicked against the city owning its own water works. Freemond Turcotte, being first duly sworn, deposes and says, that he has read the above affidavit by Joseph L. Hartell; that he was present during the conversation between Henry I. Cohen and Mr. Hartell on Saturday morning, August 2nd, and that the statements made in Mr. Hartell's affidavit are correct.

In view of these affidavits, do you doubt that Wise and his clique are

after the franchise?

Everybody in Brainerd knows the sterling honesty of John A. Hoffbauer, city editor of the Brainerd Dispatch and the reliability of The Dispatch newspaper. Mr. Hoffbauer tried the best he could this morning to get the facts about the proposed Wise-Cohen company from both Wise and Cohen, and failed. Here is Mr. Hoffbauer's affidavit:

State of Minnesota,
County of Crow Wing ss.

I saw Henry I. Cohen Monday morning, August 4, 1913, and asked him regarding his conversation with Joseph L. Hartell, the blacksmith, if Mr. Cohen had used these words: "Capitalists of Brainerd were organizing a street railway company to get the franchise and save the city of Brainerd." He said he had not said that.

He said that his statement was that there were plenty of men here who could organize a company. His conversation with Mr. Hartell he said was a personal conversation and as such he did not want it quoted.

A. W. Hearder came from St. Paul. Robert Rom, of Milwaukee, Wis., inspected the mine.

Dr. and Mrs. L. E. Monroe, of St. Louis, Mo., visited the mine.

Mrs. T. B. Locker, of Chilhowee, Mo., attended the excursion. She is the mother of Mr. Locker, of the Locker-Donahue Co.

R. C. Mast, Theodor J. Thielman and others came from Superior.

During the dinner hour the electric piano in the skating rink dining room rang out a welcome.

The intermissions Theodor J. Thielman played the piano accompaniment to the singing of Alfred Brayton, Alfred Amundson, F. G. R. Anderson, A. R. Cole and Leo Jordan, of Duluth.

The train crew included Conductor T. Harris, brakemen Frank Heller and Tom Deveney, engineer Al Dahl and fireman Barney Jodell.

City Passenger and Ticket Agent C. P. O'Donnell, of Duluth, was in charge of the excursion party and was accompanied by Trainmaster L. F. Newton, of Duluth. Mr. O'Donnell enjoyed a swim in Wahnom lake north of the Cuyuna-Mille Lacs mine.

Ice cream and grape juice were passed around among the excursionists on the train.

The baggage car was an un-Hickoryized life saving station for many a weary wayfarer.

Four special police preserved order. They were A. R. Amundson, Capt. W. Mahon, Louis Gohlke and Dr. Lamphier.

On the way out the Third Regiment band serenaded every coach.

Many paid a visit to the towns of Crosby, Deerwood and Cuyuna and also visited the mines near by.

Emmett Donahue, the young son of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. W. Donahue, was injured, a stick of cordwood snapped from a pile on which people were walking, striking him on the head and producing a scalp wound.

Dr. McCoy, of Ironport, put in several stitches and the lad was taken to Brainerd for treatment.

George Reid, president of the Minnesota Central Railway company and Joseph Ferrier, its treasurer, visited the mine. Mr. Ferrier was accompanied by his wife.

The Pennington mine was visited by a large crowd. On the brow of the hill overlooking the big pit, is the baseball field. The Pennington on Saturday evening loaded its first cars and a big shipment will soon be made. Both steam shovels are resting on the ore body which has been exposed for a large area. Pumps are at work clearing the pit of water collecting from rains and seepage.

David Murray came from Ashland, Wis. He is a director of the Cuyuna-Duluth company.

Sam Angvie came from Ashland, Wis.

Rheumatism and the Heart

Don't overlook the grave fact that rheumatism easily "settles in the heart," and disturbs the valvular action. The cure consists in removing the cause. Foley Kidney Pills so tone up and strengthen the kidneys that they keep the blood free of poisons and uric acid crystals, that cause rheumatism, swollen joints, backache, urinary irregularities, and disturbed heart action. Try them. For sale by H. P. Dunn—Adv. mwf
